Noosa & Montville Rimini Gold Card Tour Monday Full Day Tour

Noosa & Montville - This tour is a combination of some of the best features of the Sunshine Coast. Noosa has been described by some as a playground for the rich and famous. Montville, on the other hand, has been described as an English village. Depart for Noosa in the morning, with its magnificent beaches, cosmopolitan restaurants, exclusive boutiques and unsurpassed views from Noosa's best vantage points. You have free time at leisure to explore Hastings Street. A trip on the Riverlight Ferry (included in the tour) reveals the beauty of the Noosa River. After lunch (at your own expense), travel through some of the Sunshine Coast's most picturesque areas to reach the quaint mountain village of Montville. Here you can browse through the galleries, studios, arts and craft shops and specialty shops. Then visit the Maleny Mountain Winery for a wine tasting. Maleny Mountain Winery is a family owned winery, producing classic Italian style wines. There are at least 10 varieties of premium wines available at cellar door prices at the unique wine barrel showroom. Enjoy your wine tasting while overlooking the famous Glasshouse Mountains, before returning to the Sunshine Coast this afternoon. Don't forget to bring your camera!

Montville Magic Rimini Gold Card Tours Thursdays Full Day Tour

Montville Magic - Traveling via the magnificent acreage properties of the Eumundi Range we head for Dulong lookout for a panoramic view of the coast from Noosa to Caloundra. At Montville, Australia's answer to an English village established in 1887 you will enjoy the atmosphere of this historic village while browsing the variety of shops. Our guided walk through Mary Cairncross Park finds some unusual inhabitants. The day concludes with a little Australiana at the Ettamogah Pub and Aussie World. Continue onto Dulong Lookout for a panoramic view of the coast from Noosa to Caloundra, before traveling onto the quaint mountain village of Montville, Australia's version of an English village established in 1887. Enjoy the atmosphere of this historic village while browsing through the variety of galleries, art studios and craft shops. Get an indication of the amazing range of native fauna which lived in the rainforests of the area before the sounds of the settlers' axes mingled with the crack of the Whipbird and the plaintive cry of the Green Catbird.

Maleny Cheese is our next stop where you'll sample some gourmet cheese and yoghurt. Sample some Queensland wines at Maleny Mountain Winery.

Conclude the day with a stop at the Ettamogah Pub, part of Australia's folklore. It was born in the mind of one of Australia's great cartoonists, Ken Maynard and featured for many years in a popular magazine. There is no such place as Ettamogah and no such pub ever existed until some enterprising people built one based on the cartoon. Full of Australiana bric-a-brac, it's a great place to stop for a beer. A superb way to end a truly spectacular day.

Optional Side Tour - Should you wish to spend less time at Montville and are physically fit, bring your bathers and walk shoes. Take a walk and a swim at Kondalilla Waterfalls (conditions permitting) Includes National Park fees.

Montville, Maleny & Glasshouse Mountains Rimini Gold Card Tours Wednesdays & Saturday Tour

Montville, Maleny & Glasshouse Mountains - Rugged Mountains, spectacular views and shopping. Today we visit the delightful towns of Montville and Maleny where you are free to browse the various art, craft, galleries and speciality shops at your leisure. Touring among the majestic peaks named by Captain Cook in 1770, we will explore some of the 25 million year old volcanic plugs that form the Glasshouse Mountains. No wonder Matthew Flinders was the first European to climb one of these peaks. It is difficult to keep up with the scenery changes as we descend the Blackall Range, through eucalypt and rainforest into the valley which literally contains the fruit bowl of the Sunshine Coast, with its pineapple, macadamia nut, banana and pine tree plantations. You'll enjoy our stop at one of the many local fruit stalls. The views from the lookouts are breathtaking, be sure to bring your camera.
